Errors and Omission

General Provisions

Article 1. In case of any conflict between the provisions of the main insurance and the rider, the provisions of the rider shall be paramount. As to other matters not referred to in the rider, the main insurance shall be paramount. The effect of this rider shall cease upon termination of the primary insurance clause, and this rider shall cease upon invalidity of the primary insurance clause.

Insuring Agreement

Article 2. It is agreed and understood that the rights and benefits of the Insured under this insurance contract shall not be affected for any delay or unintentional error or omission when the Insurance Applicant and the Insured inform or notify the Insurer of alternations of locations occupied or value of the subject matter insured, or describe the additions of perils on the subject matter insured or any other important information. Provided that the Insurance Applicant and the Insured shall notify the Insurer of such delay, error or omission as soon as practicable after knowledge thereof and pay a possible additional premium for the period from the date of additions of perils until the expiry of the insurance period, otherwise, the Insurer bears no liability.
